Who sits where

Write names into the seat circles — pencil first, then ink once the replies are in. One table, or both.

Round table

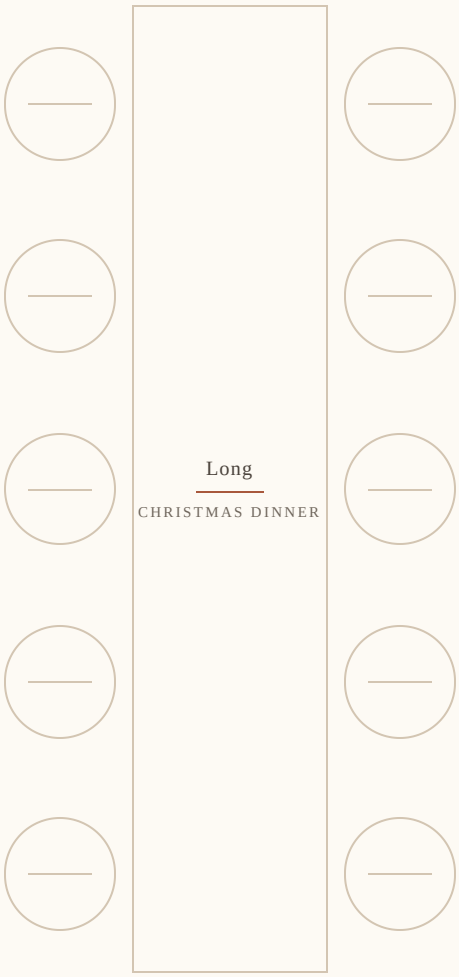

EIGHT SEATS

A 60 in round seats eight comfortably. Put the person who carves nearest the kitchen door.

Long table

TEN SEATS

A 6 ft trestle takes six to eight; ten at a squeeze. Children along one side, near the door.

ROOM NOTE where the buffet, the bar and the door are — and what moves for pudding

Printing Print at 100% — do not scale to fit. Cut on the solid lines. Card stock of 200 gsm or heavier stands best; fold the card once and stand it as a tent.

Table numbers

Tables one to eight, printed on both faces. Fold each card along the dashed line and it stands on its own.
